

LISTEN ONLY MAILBOX

Listen Only Mailbox lets you record an announcement message for your callers to hear. It's a great way to easily communicate information that does not require a reply, such as your company's hours of operation, a list of services you provide, directions on how to find you, or details on special offers or promotions. Callers may listen to your announcement and hang up, or they can press [0] to be connected to another mailbox or telephone number. Callers can't leave a message in a Listen Only Mailbox.

How to set up your Listen Only Mailbox

- Call the Listen Only phone number set up when you placed your order, and press [7] when the announcement starts to play. A tutorial will then guide you through setting up your mailbox.
- You will be asked to re-enter the 10-digit phone number of your Listen Only Mailbox.
- Next, enter a password and press #[#]. Passwords can be any number, four to 15 digits long, that doesn't begin or end in zero.
- Now record a name for the mailbox and press **#[#].
- You are now ready to use your new Listen Only Mailbox.

How to record an announcement

Additional Information: Service descriptions and any limitations may be described in product literature. These descriptions and limitations are part of these Terms and Conditions. Please call us if you need copies or have any questions.

Messaging Information: While the functionality of Business Voice Mail makes it easy for you to send messages to your groups, it also makes it easier for others to send you unwanted messages. We do not want your voice mailbox to become cluttered with "junk mail" messages; therefore, we have made the following addendum to your Business Voice Mail Terms and Conditions:

1. Obscene, abusive or offensive messages sent or forwarded from one Qwest Voice Mail mailbox to another are prohibited.
2. Neither Business nor Residential Voice Mail Customers may send unsolicited promotional, advertising, or commercial messages to other Voice Mail customers unless:
 - A. The recipient has requested messages from the sender OR
 - B. The sender has signed authorization to send messages to the recipient.
3. All sent commercial messages must clearly identify the sender's name and a phone number at which the sender can be contacted.

Qwest has the right to determine compliance or non-compliance with these rules, and it may take into account customer complaints and comments. Qwest may or may not warn a violator of a violation. In addition to any other remedy, Qwest may interrupt or disconnect service of an offender, temporarily or permanently, with or without warning.
