

High-performance Delivery A Proven Global Solution

For businesses that demand seamless Internet video playback, high-performance websites or far-reaching digital file distribution, our Content Delivery Network (CDN) is the platform that delivers. The CenturyLink CDN is specially architected into the CenturyLink IP backbone, so we have direct control over the security, performance and delivery of your content

Built to deliver virtually everywhere

Our Origin Storage Platform is integrated with the CenturyLink® CDN, enabling content libraries of virtually any size to be securely stored and easily managed—so end users can safely and quickly access the content they want
