

CenturyLink® Colocated Hosting Service (CHS)

CHS Offers Flexibility & Control

CenturyLink's CHS combines advanced, industry-leading technologies, best practices processes, and highly available data center and networking infrastructure to provide agencies with secured space to house GFP routers, servers, and load balancers. We control and secure the foundational infrastructure used to deliver advanced CHS and IP-based communications services to the

Product Description

CenturyLink's CHS will provide agencies with colocation space in accordance with agency requirements. Colocation space will be allocated with climate control, smoke detection, fire suppression, and access controls and security for standalone racks or cage space with powered racks.

Highlights

- 60+ data centers worldwide
- Multi-level physical security
- Redundant N+1 power systems
- Wide range of options (e.g., cages, vaults, pods)
- Direct connectivity to all EIS network services
- 24x7x365 support

KEY FEATURES

- Cages, racks and cabinets
- Location security and site surveillance
- Facility access
- Power
- UPS
- Very Early Smoke
- Detection Apparatus (VESDA)
- Fire suppression systems
- Cooling systems

How CHS is Provided:

CenturyLink's CHS is available in over sixty global data centers distributed throughout North America, Europe, Asia, and Australia offering more than 2.5 million square feet of floor space. Data centers are fully integrated with our converged core network to provide a secure, reliable, and scalable infrastructure.

Federal Solutions Group Headquarters
4250 N. Fairfax Drive Arlington, VA 22203

For more information, contact your CenturyLink Government Sales Representative or visit: www.centurylink.com/federal